

HEAD OF SECONDARY SCHOOL

COMMENCING 2018

Leibler Yavneh College ("Yavneh") is a leading independent, non-selective, co-educational school from ELC to Year 12. The main campus is located in the Melbourne bayside suburb of Elsternwick approximately 9 kilometres south-east of the City Centre. Current enrolment of the School from Prep to Year 12 is approximately 600 students. As Australia's leading Modern Orthodox Jewish school, the staff are committed to the development of a warm and nurturing school environment for all students, which, leading by example, encourages the practice of Derech Eretz (ethical behaviour) and a commitment to Religious-Zionist ideals. "Yavneh" has an enviable history of producing community, professional and business leaders with a reputation of integrity and fine character.

"Yavneh" is proud not only of an academic record that consistently places it in the top 2% of schools in the state but also of the reputation of the "Yavneh Family" which is a description of a culture of community that pervades the School. This culture reflects the intimacy of the College's learning environment as well as the family-oriented, traditional values that its parents, students and staff share.

This position represents an exciting opportunity for a visionary leader who can:

- Inspire lifelong, independent learners who pursue excellence and strive to achieve their maximum potential
- Articulate and implement innovative education initiatives
- Align an educational philosophy with strategy focused on developing a student culture within which effort and excellence are recognized
- Apply research to educational practice
- Lead and manage staff within a contemporary organisational structure
- Successfully engage the parent community regarding the School's strategy
