

Attendance

School attendance is a legal requirement for Victorian children. While it is the parents/guardians obligation and responsibility to ensure their children attend school, schools also have an obligation to record and manage attendance in an accurate and timely manner.

Parents/Guardians have been advised of the following process:

